

Arts in the Village is pleased to present concerts again after a two-year hiatus due to the pandemic. The three concerts that have been scheduled for the remainder of our 20th season will feature popular performers who have appeared in our series in the past. All performances take place on Saturday evenings at 7:30 at Goff Memorial Hall. This brochure will allow you to subscribe at a discount for the remaining concerts, or to get tickets for individual concerts. You can also make a donation to help ensure the future of Arts in the Village. On concert evenings, payment may be made by cash, credit card, or checks made out to Rehoboth Antiquarian Society. We look forward to seeing you there! For information, call 508-431-6879.

FEBRUARY 18

Emil Altschuler & Mana Tokuno

Acclaimed violinist Emil Altschuler returns to Arts in the Village with virtuosic pianist Mana Tokuno for a program titled "An American in Paris." Many of the featured composers lived or studied in Paris. Emil received his Bachelor of Music from the Juilliard School and his Masters of Music from Yale. He maintains an active career as a soloist, chamber musician, and orchestral musician, and founded the Altschuler Summer Music Institute, which takes place in Rimini, Italy. Mana has received widespread acclaim for her sensitive and insightful interpretations. Known for her ability to bring a vast array of styles to life, she has appeared in numerous recitals, chamber concerts, and concerto performances in US venues, such as New York's Carnegie Hall and Boston's Symphony Hall.

MARCH 18

Haven String Quartet & Andrius Zlabys

The Haven String Quartet and pianist Andrius Zlabys mark their return with a beautiful and evocative program featuring Gabriel Fauré's Piano Quintet No. 1 in D Minor and George Walker's Lyric for Strings. Fauré's Quintet is filled with mesmerizing and haunting writing for both strings and piano, while Walker's breathtaking Lyric for Strings is dedicated to his formerly enslaved grandmother. In addition to concertizing throughout the region, the Haven String Quartet spearheads the non-profit Music Haven, a nationally recognized free after-school lessons program. Grammy-nominated pianist Andrius Zlabys has placed himself in the forefront of today's practitioners of his instrument. Born in Lithuania and trained at the Curtis Institute of Music, Zlabys made his Carnegie Hall debut in 2001.

APRIL 29

Jonathan Cohler & Rasa Vitkauskaite

Come enjoy a celebration of chamber music for clarinet and piano featuring renowned clarinet soloist Jonathan Cohler and multiple-prize-winning pianist Rasa Vitkauskaite. Known throughout the world as today's leading clarinet-piano duo, they have recorded four widely acclaimed CDs and have appeared at numerous major international music festivals. Described as "flawless," their performances achieve an ideal blend of elegance, delicacy, and joie de vivre. Program highlights include selections from the duo's most recent album Latin Journey featuring works of several celebrated Latin American composers. The concert will also include engaging introductions by both Cohler and Vitkauskaite and promises to be an exciting evening.
