

REHOBOTH ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY
SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Applicants must be planning to major in some field related to museum or library studies. This may include museum or library sciences, history, archaeology, anthropology, conservation, restoration, preservation, etc. Applications for programs other than traditional academic programs will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

It is the responsibility of the scholarship winner to contact the RAS Scholarship Committee when the second semester bill has been received. The scholarship winner is required to forward a copy of the first semester transcript and second semester bill to the RAS Scholarship Committee before the scholarship funds will be sent directly either to the academic or vocational institution, or to the student, at the request of the student with final consideration and approval by the Board.
